IN THE HIGHER COURTS.

AN WONG GRANTED FURTHER TIME FOR EXCEPTIONS.

Cross Action Against H. H. Parker—
Bankruptcy and Probate Mis-wera Stranding Case.

By stipulation between Deputy Attorney General A. W. Carter and A. G. M. Robertson, time for Ah Wong, convicted of a felonious assault, to file his exceptions is extended until January.

S. K. Kane has filed a bond as administrator of the estate of Kana Kukona.

The Heeia Agricultural Company has brought a petition into the Circuit Court for a right of way for a railway track across the land of Rev. H. H. Parker who had served an injunction against the plaintiff to prevent it from constructing such railway.

John Kalaukoa has brought a divorce suit against Elizabeth N. Kalaukoa.

An action has been brought by W. R. Castle against L. Ahlo on a note for $1200.

Cecilia Kealohilani, widow of Antone K. Sylva, petitions for letters of administration on her late husband's estate, which is valued at $500, to issue to Hermann Kaouli.

A. Strohm has filed his bill of exceptions to the ruling of Judge Cooper, whereby a nonsuit was entered to his action against W. F. Wilson and others for wages for work done in trying to float the steamship Miowera when stranded at this port.

Christmas Services.

All of the churches were crowded at the special services yesterday morning, especially the Catholic cathedral which was unable to hold the large congregations attending the various services. At St. Andrew's cathedral there were six separate services, at all of which Wray Taylor officiated at the organ. At the 9:30 service of the Second Congregation the music was especially fine, Miss McGrew's singing of the soprano solos being more than usually beautiful. The cathedral was crowded at this service. At the Central Union church there was a large congregation and the musical portion of the service was very attractive and well rendered.

Morse Shoes of Aluminum.

Russia has tried experiments with aluminum shoes for cavalry horses. A few horses in the Finland Dragoons were shod with one aluminum shoe and three iron shoes each, the former being on the fore foot in some cases, and on the hind foot in others. The experiment lasted six weeks, and showed that the aluminum shoes lasted longer and preserved the foot better than the iron ones.

CRICKET MATCH.

Home Team Defeats the Players of the Gunboat.

The return match between the Honolulu and H. B. M. S. Wild Swan cricket teams was played on Christmas afternoon. It resulted in a victory for the home players by 58 to 27 for one innings. In the middle of the second innings the Honolulu resigned the wickets to allow the visitors another spell of batting before time was called. There were five men of each side to bat in this half inning, Honolulu scoring 68 and Wild Swan 44, making the total score: Honolulu 126, Wild Swan 71. The teams with their scores for the completed innings were as follows:

Honolulu—A St Piianaia, c and b Weston, 7. A St M Mackintosh, b Weston, 2. P Neumann Jr, c Stundun, b Dean, 1. M Brasch, b Ward, 20. T Lishman, b Weston, 3. W L Stanley, c Church, b Ward, 9. A R Hatfield, c Ward, b Weston, 2. A Ah Lo, run out, 4. W Thompson, b Weston, 0. D Ross, run out, 0. W Lishman, not out, 1. Extras 9. Total 58.

Wild Swan—Mr Gaisford, c Piianaia, b Mackintosh, 0. Lieut Weston, b Hatfield, 3. Dean, c Brasch, b Mackintosh, 0. Mr Ward, b Mackintosh, 0. Lieut Church, b Hatfield, 0. Dr. Marriott, b Hatfield, 11. Capt Napier, b Hatfield, 1. Dare, not out, 4. Mr Heathcote, c Stanley, b Hatfield, 0. Stundun, c Neumann, b Lishman, 0. Perryman, c Hatfield, b Lishman, 0. Extras 8. Total 27.

Both the Honolulu bowlers did remarkably well. Five wickets of the Wild Swan went down for three runs in the first innings, and five for five runs in the second. The home fielding was also excellent. Lieut Weston did good bowling for the visitors, retiring several of the best home batters with small scores and one cipher. In the half inning of the Honolulu team Mackintosh made 15, the second best score of the day. If the ship does not leave port there will likely be another match on Saturday. British Commissioner Hawes was among the group of spectators at yesterday's game.

The Sachs' doll contest was won by Miss Elsa Schaefer, daughter of F. A. Schaefer, who had 1588 coupons. Miss Letitia Morgan was second with 1229.

H. M. S. Wild Swan will sail about the 28th of the present month for Fanning Island, Tahiti and Pitcairn Island, for all of which she will take a mail.

Ovide Musin and Mr. Scharf visited the Kamehameha schools last night and played selections at a concert given by the girl pupils to the boys.

The regulars enjoyed a swell Christmas dinner at the drill shed yesterday. All the officers of the regiment were present.

Prisoners in Oahu Jail were given a fine dinner yesterday, and those in the police station were also remembered.

The Christmas entertainment of the Christian church Sunday school takes place at the church this evening at 7 o'clock.

A joker penciled in the diary of the Judiciary Clerk's office, under "Christmas Day," the entry: "The People vs. Santa Claus; continued till Dec. 25, 1896." Is it a bill in equity for accounting?

Officer Cordes arrested a native named Jim Crow this morning for having opium in possession. He gathered in half a tumbler full of opium, three pipes and two lamps as evidence.

Mallard duck and California oranges and apples encased in solid blocks of ice attracted many eyes in front of Lewis & Co.'s grocery store Tuesday evening. The freezing was done at the new refrigerating works.

Elsewhere will be found the program of the H. R. A.'s twentieth semi-annual meeting to be held on New Year's Day. A long list of prizes is given for the citizens' match.

The starting of the new ice works in earnest is delayed to await arrival of hinges for the doors of the cold storage compartments. They are expected by the return of the Australia. Without the doors there is a temperature of 24 degrees there now when the apparatus is working.

AN OLD SETTLER GONE.

DEATH OF W. C. LANE THIS MORNING.

Over Fifty Years a Resident of This Island—He Leaves a Large Family to Mourn Him.

At half-past nine o'clock this morning W. C. Lane, one of the oldest white residents of the islands, breathed his last at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Kaee, in this city. The deceased had been ill a few days with pneumonia, and in spite of the efforts of his physicians, Drs. McLennan and Russel, succumbed to its effects. The body will be embalmed by Ed. A. Williams and then sent over to the late residence of the deceased at Makao, on the other side of the island, where the funeral will take place.

W. C. Lane was a native of Ireland, and at the time of his death was 76 years of age. He came to Honolulu in the early '40's, but the exact date could not be ascertained this morning. Old settlers first remember him in connection with the old Maine Hotel. This building was converted into a hospital about the year 1845 by Dr. S. P. Ford, and W. C. Lane was placed in charge of it. The building was afterwards destroyed by fire.

For thirty-five years past Mr. Lane has been engaged in agriculture and the raising of sheep and cattle on lands in the vicinity of Koolau and Laie. His residence at Makao is known to all the old-timers and his lavish hospitality will long be remembered by his friends. He served one term in the Legislature from 1882 to 1884, and at one time was in charge of the Kahuku plantation.

W. C. Lane leaves a large family, five sons and five daughters surviving him, besides a large number of grandchildren. One daughter is married to a physician of New York, a second to Junius Kaee and a third to John Ena. The sons are all well-known in this city.

The deceased was one of the oldest members of the Excelsior Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., which he joined in the year 1860, being then 40 years old. Funeral services will probably be held at the residence of his daughter prior to the removal of the remains to Makao under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, but arrangements thereto have not yet been made.

Busy Undertaker.

Ed. A. Williams, undertaker, has had his hands full these two days. He has conducted the following funerals:

Of Geo. Ahnai, age 26, a native of Kona, buried yesterday from Kawaiaho church in the cemetery thereof, Rev. H. H. Parker officiating.

Of Annie Jacobson, age 12 years, buried today at Makiki.

Of John Kenson, whose name was by error given as Censon in Tuesday's paper, buried yesterday in Nuuanu cemetery, Bishop Willis officiating.

He has also embalmed the body of Wm. C. Lane as elsewhere reported.

Death of J. Glocker.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the sufferings of J. Glocker, who had been an invalid for years, came to an end. The deceased came here about three years since suffering from asthma and has been confined to his room ever since. The immediate cause of his death was dropsy. During his long illness he has been cared for by Dr. and Mrs. McLennan and other charitably disposed people. The deceased was a native of England, 60 years of age, and leaves a wife and four children in London.

Mr. Glocker was an old newspaper man, and until compelled to resign on account of ill-health held the responsible position of manager of the advertising department of the London Times.

The funeral took place from St. Andrew's cathedral at 9:30 this morning, Rev. V. H. Kiteat officiating. "Nearer my God to thee" was sung by the choir. Vice Consul T. R. Walker, Dr. McLennan and several members of the Ladies' Strangers' Friend Society were present.

"Begin at the bottom and work up, my boy," said the old gentleman. "That's the way to succeed in life." "Yes," replied the young man thoughtfully, "but it doesn't work in the immediate instance." "Why not? I'm inventing a new style of toboggan.—Washington Star.

"You look so tired, uncle?" "Yes, Mr. Jones, and I have been sitting in the cardroom an hour, waiting for the third man." Oh! how long have I been waiting for the first one?"—Buch fur Alle.

"She's an old friend of mine." "That may be, but don't let her hear you put it in that way.—Boston Courier.

IN JUDGE PERRY COURT.

AN ASSORTMENT OF CHRISTMAS DRUNKS. SENTENCED.

Long List of Chinese Gamblers—Fifty Dollars for Having Opium in Possession—Other Cases.

The calendar of Judge Perry's court was a light one for the day following Christmas, which is only another fact going to show that Honolulu is a moral and orderly community. Of the forty-three defendants arranged in front of His Honor at the opening of court this morning fifteen were charged with drunkenness. There were seventeen in all, but the other two were still in a somnolent condition and unable to summon up courage enough to face the stern majesty of the law. The fifteen who were present were a choice assortment as far as nationality goes.

Five of them were natives, two were Irish, one French, two Portuguese and the rest English and American. Japanese and Chinese were conspicuous by their absence. They all received the usual fine.

Hong Kee, having satisfactorily demonstrated to the gentleman who acts as prosecuting attorney that he was not a common nuisance, was allowed to depart.

The charge of larceny preferred against John King was also dismissed by the prosecution.

Wo Chong, who is accused of marrying a wife in China and one in Honolulu, and living with both of them at once for the last three years, will tell how he manages to keep peace in his family when his trial comes off, which will likely be tomorrow.

Lo Choy pleaded guilty of having opium in his possession and was fined $50 and costs forthwith.

Ah Hin and Yuo Kun are two celestialists who tried to settle their differences by fighting and pulling each other's queues, but the police interfered and landed both of them in the station house. They promptly renewed the fight by preferring countercharges of assault and battery against each other, besides giving two attorneys a fee each. The cases were tried together and his honor dismissed both charges.

Fourteen Chinese gamblers were brought up in a batch. Three of them pleaded guilty and the rest were let off. The guilty ones will be sentenced on Saturday.

A noble pros. was entered in the case of Kon Sam, charged with distilling liquor, and the Court adjourned for the day.

Circus Again Crowded.

Yesterday the circus people gave two performances, the matinee being well attended, while at the evening show the tent was packed. The entertainments were right up to the standard, as usual. Little Muriel Wirth was presented with a large and handsome floral design by some of her friends.

Muriel, Katie Montgomery and Elsie St. Leon have won the hearts of the people of Honolulu. On account of a change in the leaving time of the steamers for Hawaii, the show cannot get away until next Monday. As a consequence there will be a matinee and evening performances on Saturday next. The matinee will be a benefit for Muriel Wirth and the managers have kindly extended an invitation to the inmates of Lunalilo Home to come to the show, offering them free tickets. The leper benefit netted over $223.00 for the unfortunates on Molokai. Saturday night's will be positively the last appearance in Honolulu.
