LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Penians to the front.

St. Patrick's day in the morning.

The Mariposa took one sack of silver containing $12,067.

Only $8 for an excellent business suit at the Great I X L Store.

This is the anniversary of the birthday of Kamehameha III.

A special meeting of the trustees of the Sailors Home will be held this morning.

The Irish lawn tennis team left on Saturday by the Mariposa. The Hawaiian team again holds its head on high.

The Mariposa sailed punctually, at noon on Saturday, with plenty of passengers, much mail and plenty of freight.

What has become of the public school pupils who absented themselves during the recent medical examinations?

Claims for damages, caused by the proposed widening of Merchant street, must be filed with the Police Justice on Wednesday.

Frank La Mondue ascends and descends the wire rope, outside the circus tent, at half-past six on the evening of each performance.

His Majesty returned from Hawaii on Saturday afternoon by the Kinau. The usual salute was fired from the battery, on his arrival.

The consignee of ten packages of clothing landed, ex Madras in September last, is notified that they will be sold, in ten days, unless claimed.

District Judge Kama, of Waianae, has a prospect of six more cases for damages being brought against him by the other Portuguese who were recently refused bail.

Major Bender, who left by the Mariposa on Saturday, will return on that vessel. He will then remain here for several months to complete the work that he has in hand.

A large credit sale of English and foreign groceries will be held on Wednesday, by Messrs. Lyons & Levey. The goods are of the best quality and of a varied assortment.

A would-be passenger by the Planter, on Friday afternoon, managed to fall overboard. He lost his passage but got a ducking before he was rescued by Deputy Marshal Dayton.

A bracelet was found at the circus on Thursday night by a police officer. It can be obtained on application to the Deputy Marshal, who also has a good English saddle that wants an owner.

Mr. Gibson and Mr. Van Geisen took a drive together into the country on Friday. Have they been selecting a site for a new branch hospital, away from the haunts of men and the eyes of the press?

The Makiki fire broke out again on Friday afternoon, and the services of Lieutenant Smythe and his mounted troopers were again called into requisition. After an hour's hard work they overcame the flames and all danger was at an end.

The steamer Iwalani left the Waimea mail behind last week, so it was put on board the schooner Waimalu, and delivered at the Honolulu Post Office about two hours after the arrival of the Iwalani on Saturday. Opposition is a convenience to the people of Kauai.

"WILLIAM Claude Jones was born in 1856. He came to these islands in 1856." Saturday Press. Within a few brief months, before he was a year old, according to our contemporary, "he served in the Seminole and Mexican wars, was a deputy marshal and attorney general, practiced law, met Lincoln and Benton and was in Kansas."

The circus grows in popularity with each performance. New acts and tricks are introduced every night, and Barney has now become so particular that he will only untie a lady's handkerchief from his leg. He also "gives away" the ladies who wink at him, and dances a hornpipe on a platform. The French riding school act is amusing.

Our contemporary, the Saturday Press, wonders that we have not referred to the "farical investigation" at Kakaako. We have not been "fixed" yet, but we felt that the subject could not be dealt with hurriedly. You should remember dear weekly that we have to work every day of the week, that our staff is not numerous and that we have not an "inconvenient daily" from which to rewrite reports. The world is young, and the Advertiser is not likely to comment on the report. Be patient.

Call and see those ladies elegantly trimmed hats and hat trimmings at A. M. Mellis.

H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani and His Excellency Governor Dominis returned from Maui by the Kinau.

The Band will give a concert this evening at Emma Square at 7:30.

The circus was again crowded on Saturday night. The performance of the Indian was highly appreciated.

Captain Houdlett, of the W. H. Dimond, wants the band to play on the wharf when he leaves to-morrow.

The Zealandia took 188 through passengers for San Francisco, among them was Miss Louise Pomeroy the tragedienne.

The Zealandia brought 40 pkgs of merchandise and 200 sacks potatoes for this port. She landed and received a mail at the Navigator Islands.

Mr. F. H. Macey, chief officer of the Julia, was a passenger by the Zealandia.

Tom McKay, the railway agent, passed through Honolulu yesterday.

The steamer Zealandia sailed for San Francisco last evening at 6.

The diplomas from the Boston Exhibition arrived yesterday on their return trip from the Colonies.

The funeral of the late Major Kimimaka took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Kawaiahae Cemetery, and was very largely attended.

The afternoon performance at the circus on Saturday afternoon pleased the juveniles for whom it was intended. They seemed especially delighted with the horse Jack who wouldn't do as he was told. The military erected a temporary platform on the fence round the battery and viewed the performance from outside the tent, under the supervision of their commanding officer.
