INCREASED SALARIES FOR CUSTOM HOUSE MEN

The Treasury Department Authorizes the Changes Recommended by Collector Stackable.

There was a broad smile at the Custom House yesterday all day long. The changes expected were made and many of the men had their salaries materially increased and there were thirteen new places created which will have to be filled.

The letter ordering the changes arrived in the Gaelic in answer to the recommendations made last July by Collector Stackable who is very much pleased at the new arrangement as it will put the force on a good working basis and on the new footing the men have been at times handicapped by a great amount of work, but now there will be ample help for any occasion.

The following changes have been ordered: Two extra day and two night inspectors, at the regular salaries. One additional examiner at $2000 per annum. One clerk to assist in the liquidating department at a salary of $1400 per annum. This to be increased at the end of six months' satisfactory service to $1600 a year. One additional clerk to appraise at a salary of $1200 per year. Two samplers and verifiers at $900 per year. Three laborers at $480 a year.

The position of outside deputy collector has been abolished and an inspector in charge at a salary of $4 a day placed at the head of the outside force. M. J. Scanlon, one of the most popular and capable of the outside force of officers, has been appointed to the coveted position.

The salaries of John W. Short and A. M. Nowell have been increased to $1800 and $1600 a year respectively and by January 1, 1902, if these officers have mastered thoroughly the matter of liquidating entries and continue to give the satisfaction they have in the past, their pay will be increased to $2000 and $1800 respectively.

The salary of J. K. Brown, Jr., entry clerk, has been increased from $1500 to $1800 and the same increase made in the salary of R. L. Barnes, bond clerk. The position of chief examiner, which is now vacant, has had the salary of $2400 a year fixed. F. L. Beninger, examiner, has been increased to $1600 from $1200.

WILL BE SPECIAL TERM OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Gear has issued an order for a special term of the First Circuit Court to begin on September 14, and to continue for a period of twenty-four days. The order was sent by messenger yesterday afternoon to Judge Perry's residence, but the official was away in the country so that it was not signed.

A very large number of cases will be left over after the present special term is ended, even if the best of work is done by Judges Gear and Little. In all probability there will be two hundred, some of which will still have to go over to the November term.

TOMBSTONE IN COURT

The Career of One From Kawaiaha Cemetery is Aired.

The replevin suit for the recovery of a tombstone brought against Frank Godfrey and Mrs. Alice Metcalf came up in Judge Dickey's court Tuesday afternoon. The tombstone was erected by the plaintiff in the memory of Frank Metcalf, deceased, brother of the plaintiff and husband of Alice Metcalf, one of the defendants. The tablet had inscribed upon it the words "Uncle Frank," the children of Mrs. Rowland having paid for the stone, and it was these words which were objectionable to the defendant widow, who accompanied by Frank Godfrey representing himself as her attorney in fact, went to Kawaiaha cemetery and took away the tombstone on July 31st.

The testimony of witnesses showed that the tablet had been taken under protest made by Kekawewe, the sexton, who insisted that Mrs. Metcalf see Mr. Parker, the pastor, before removing the stone. Other testimony showed that permission had been obtained for the placing of the stone when it was erected, from Mrs. Nakulua, whose son possessed the right of the lot. The defendant insisted that the two defendants themselves, and they protested that they had a right to remove the stone as the land belonged to the church and not to Mrs. Metcalf. The court failed to see the point of this argument, and after summing up the evidence it rendered judgment for the recovery of the tombstone, or the payment of $10 as the cost thereof, and for $5 damages in the removal, and costs, which amounted to $2.50.

LIGHT COMPANY A SUFFERER.

Breaks in Its Service Due to Non-Receipt of Supplies.

Users of light and power furnished by the Hawaiian Electric Company have suffered a good deal of inconvenience the last four days, due, the electric company says, to non-receipt of supplies and machinery from San Francisco, which could not be shipped on account of the strike in that city. Badly needed engine valves cannot be had here, and orders for them sent to the Coast have not been filled. Lights in the down-town section were out for almost three hours last night. The company claims it is doing its utmost to give good service, but badly needed repairs to some of the machinery cannot be made until supplies can be received from the coast.

GEAR ISSUES AN INJUNCTION.

Suit was brought yesterday by J. S. Andrade and a temporary injunction secured against Gus Schuman to restrain him from selling or mortgaging 315 shares of stock owned by him in the Territory Stables Company. The parties entered into a private co-partnership, says Andrade, by which Schuman was to use his influence to make and keep Andrade manager of the company. He alleges that Schuman is now planning to secure a controlling interest and do away with Andrade. It was agreed that the partners were to vote their stock together and that neither was to sell or mortgage his stock while the agreement lasted. Andrade says now that Schuman intends to violate the agreement. Judge Gear issued the temporary injunction.

THE ADVERTISER SUED.

The Suit of Eugene Avery For $20,000 Comes Up.

Eugene Avery's suit for damages to the amount of $20,000 against the Advertiser came up in Judge Little's court yesterday. A. W. Pearson, business manager of the Advertiser, and the petitioner, were on the stand all the afternoon. Attorney George A. Davis appeared for Avery, and Ballou & McClanahan, Peters & Andrade for the defendant.

An article was published in the Advertiser on August 8 of last year, to the effect that Avery was accused of embezzling $72, and that he was caught trying to get out of town on the steamship Australia, by the police. Avery was indicted by a grand jury and a true bill was found against him. He was tried and acquitted, after which he sued the Advertiser for $20,000. Avery was employed with King Bros. at the time he was accused of embezzlement.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

Thirty Thousand Soldiers of the Temple Parade at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 27.—It is estimated that 30,000 persons today witnessed the parade of Knights Templar. Thirty thousand Sir Knights in full uniform were in line, forming an imposing spectacle with which to inaugurate the twentieth triennial convulse. The march started at 9:40 a. m., and was finished at 10:20 p. m., after covering a distance of four miles. The course was protected by wires strung along the sidewalks to keep spectators in check.

The weather early was clear and cool, but by noon the heat became oppressive, and there were eleven cases of prostration due to heat and exhaustion, none of which were serious. A portion of the Young Men's Christian Association reviewing stand, at Fourth street and Broadway, collapsed, and half a dozen people sustained injuries.

The parade was a magnificent spectacle of life and color. A detachment of mounted police led the march. Grand Marshal J. H. Leathers and his aides following immediately behind. Then came the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, acting as a special escort to the officers of the Grand Encampment, who rode in carriages. When the grand master, Reuben H. Lloyd of California, stepped into his carriage every knight brought his sword to "salute."

The crack commanderies from Chicago, Pittsburg, and San Francisco attracted special attention by their magnificent appearance. Columbia Commandery No. 2 of Washington, D. C., came in for much applause all along the route, as Sir Knight Rear Admiral Schley is a member of it, and had been expected to march with his comrades. Although he was absent, at every point in the course when the Washington men appeared the crowd took up the cry "Schley! Schley! Hurrah for Schley!"

Later, when the formal welcome to the Knights was extended by Judge Baker of Louisville, acting for Governor Beckham, and ex-Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, the mention of Schley's name elicited applause so enthusiastic that the speakers were compelled to stop for several minutes.

Colonel Breckinridge delivered the chief address at this function. Grand Master Lloyd responded briefly. The key to the city was presented by Mayor Weaver.

Fireworks, excursions on the river and other diversions occupied the visitors tonight. A large audience was entertained to-night at the horse show building by a program designed to show how the Southern derby enjoys himself. There was a camp meeting spectacle, a cake walk and old-time melodies by a chorus of 200 colored people.

DISCHARGED AND ARRESTED.

George Wade, in prison for the murder of Steward Gillespie, of the steamer Australia, was released by Judge Gear yesterday under a habeas corpus proceeding, but was promptly arrested again by High Sheriff Brown. His case will once more come up in the Police Court today.

THE GOAL.

James Smith was a man On the steam-engine plan, He worked forty miles to the hour; His head, like a live, With plans was alive, Of railroads, and money, and power.

One stroke of his pen Enriched many men, Or else plunged them all in despair; The market stood still To determine his will While he waxed many times millionaire.

Yet often he sighed, As his wealth multiplied, For leisure, and travel, and ease; And he planned for the day When, retired, he could say, "At last I can do as I please."

Now at length came the time, When he'd long passed his prime, For which he had struggled and sighed; The world was his own, And he sat on the throne— But it happened just then that he died. —Leslie's Weekly.

Came Near Being a Cripple.

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., U. S. A., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by all druggists and dealers. BENSON, SMITH & CO., Agents for Hawaii.

Something New.

Fine opportunity to learn cutting and fitting, by system. For particulars apply at Mrs. Mellis' Dressmaking Establishment, Fort street, above the store of Sachs' Dry Goods Co. Ltd.

Seems strange that we should buy more wash skirts when we already had the completest stock in town. Yet if you knew the inner history of this purchase the wonder would cease. It was one of those once-in-a-season changes, that brook not a moment's hesitation, much less refusal. Indeed, had we not accepted at sight, would we not have been traitors to your interests?

If you have use for one more summer skirt, these invite your inspection. Every skirt absolutely perfect. Styles—the latest; some plain; some with elaborate trimming; some with flares and flounces. There are all these materials—THESE GOOD MATERIALS—Cocoons, Denims, Crashes, Linens, Khakis and Piques. And prices to suit all purses.
