James Kaneakua died last night at the residence of Mr. L. McKeague on Fort street. The deceased was 81 years of age and was the foster father of John M. Kaneakua, the well-known attorney and of Louis McKeague. The kamaainas will remember the old man who was an excellent type of the old Hawaiians. The funeral took place at 3:30 p. m., to-day at Kawaiahao.

Marshal Brown has forced the ladies under police patronage to locate at Iwilei near the Prison. The virtuous Marshal who demands to have the social evil under his "own eyes," has now selected a spot near the Prison. The Judge suggested this morning that accommodations at Iwilei should have been ready before the dames were arrested. We, who used to be in jail say, it an excellent idea. Why not have them inside the prison wall?

Garbage Crematory Bids.

At the Interior office yesterday tenders for a garbage crematory were opened. Each bid was accompanied by specifications of the kind of crematory and buildings contemplated for erection by the bidder. The lowest bid was $16,500, offered by Catton, Neill & Co. of Honolulu. The other bids were as follows: One from Pennsylvania is for $43,322; one from New York, $18,500, and one from Toledo, O., $51,215. There are four bids from England in sterling money ranging from £2,280 to £9,628 18s 7d., Honolulu Iron Works Co., $18,250, and Cotton Bros. & Co., $26,095, together with Catton, Neill & Co., were the three local firms tendering.

At the Orpheum.

The orpheum had a full house and a society crowd last night. Had the presence been present at the Opera House their names would have appeared in the society journal as an event of the season.

As to the performance itself it gave satisfaction for the applause was hearty throughout and spontaneous withal. Most certainly the people had "their moneys worth" and genial Sam Parker had an honest endorsement as Governor. Since the company pleases criticism would be superfluous.

CORRESPONDENCE.

An Important Question.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

I have read the territorial bill as passed by the Senate and the House of Representatives. I have lived in these islands during the past ten years, and I have voted, although I never became a citizen of the country. I simply carried a gun.

Now I see that there is a move in politics again and that the Republicans are flirting with John Vivas and the other boys to whom we listen. Please tell me whether we can vote, and whether it is necessary for us to "back" Mr. Thurston and his crowd before we are allowed to have a say. I am 21 years old, can write and read English, after a fashion, know a "sleeping" dictionary when it is around, but was not born here. My arrival was 15 years ago, and I have been a law-abiding citizen since and am now well to do, although I am not a "P. C. Jones." Mr. Editor, can I vote on the 4th of November? A PORTUGUESE.

[Of course you can vote if you become a citizen of the United States. All you have to do is to go before a judge with two reputable citizens who will swear that you have resided here during the past five years. Then you take the oath to uphold the U. S. constitution and behold you become an American citizen. Prior to placing your name on the list of voters you will have to dig up one ($1.00) dollar for a poll tax, and when you have done it you are a full-fledged voter. Read the territorial bill carefully, and you need not ask us any questions.—Ed.]

Court Notes.

A decision signed by Acting Judge Silliman has been handed in in the Carson-Claudine collision case of Geo. U. Hind et al. vs. Wilder's S. S. Co., wherein the judgment is against the defendant corporation for the loss of the Carson. The Court finds that the libellants are entitled to judgment against the respondent for the sum of $55,000 and costs. A decree for damages for the value of the ship and costs will be signed on presentation. Paul Neumann for libellants, Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for libelee.

The will of the late Eliza Jane Boardman was duly admitted to probate yesterday by Acting Judge Silliman. George Edgar Boardman was appointed executor to act without bonds and to file an inventory within thirty days. S. F. Chillingworth for petitioner.

On account of the absence abroad of Bruce Cartwright, trustee of the R. W. Holt estate, the Court allows the case to go over until his return. The case is in reference to his resignation as such trustee. Cecil Brown for trustee.

F. W. Macfarlane and Aug. Ahrens, guardians of Ruth and George Richardson, minors, have filed their first account. They charge themselves with $18,933 21 and ask to be allowed $18,912 15, leaving a balance of $21.06.

In the ejection suit of Kauba vs. Peter High, on account of the near approach of the May term, the Court, with the assent of respective counsel, orders the case continued until moved on. It is stipulated that the evidence already taken shall be available in future proceedings.

Lyle A. Dickey took his oath of office to-day as Second District Magistrate of Honolulu, which was sworn to before Henry Smith, clerk of the Judiciary Department.

May Day.

May Day! May Day! sing the merry lays
Of Chaucer and of Spencer and the old Shakespearean days!

Ring the bells and let the dells resound with fairy song—
The merry, magic music of the days long gone!

An echo comes: we may not sing,
we cannot ring our bells,
The days of truth are passed, her voice no more awakes the dells.

And the men who loved the May-bloom have trod the farther shore—
The wimpling brooks have borne them thence with Charon's ombrous car.

To-day men cannot sing with us,
their lilies are not ours,
For the May-flower blossoms now as then, alone in modest bowers.
