Don't fail to ring up Telephone 414, American Messenger Service, if you have any messages or packages to deliver.

The Hawaiian delegates to the convention are being entertained at a luau this afternoon on the Washington Place premises.

When you want a hack ring up 191. On that stand you will get a reliable and good driver, a fine hack, and no overcharging.

There will be a mass meeting of Hawaiians outside of the Drill Shed to-morrow evening. R. W. Wilcox will be the principal speaker.

All Hawaiian postage stamps will be cancelled after June 14. Hawaiian stamps will be changed for American stamps at the post office.

The City Carriage Co. is now in the livery business. It has buggies, surreys, wagons, etc., on hand at all hours of the day or night. Telephone 113.

It is rumored that governor Dole will appoint Geo. W. Ashley treasurer of the territory, F. Dodge superintendent of public works, and A. M. Brown, high sheriff.

Twenty three young men graduated yesterday from the Kamehameha Manual school. Principal Thompson presented the diplomas, and J. Plunkett said the valedictory.

The performance at the Orpheum last evening was a great success. The "Grand Duchess" was the operette presented and the charming piece was rendered in a highly satisfactory manner.

Don't forget that the first race meeting takes place to-morrow afternoon at the Kapiolani park track. Many horses are entered and an interesting meeting is assured. Put your money and gloves on the winning horses.

Turk and Lewis, the well known shipping masters, were discharged by Judge Wilcox yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery. The witnesses for the prosecution had become "unwilling" witnesses. L. A. Andrews appeared for the defendants.

Great preparations are being made for the celebration of Admission day. Governor Dole will make an address, the band will play, the soldiers will walk, horses will race and dancers will dance and refreshments refresh. What about the promised fireworks? Has Kennedy's Fourth of July stock of rockets run out?

Attorney John M. Vivas returned from Hawaii this morning, and is greatly benefited in health. Mr. Vivas was run down when he left here through overwork, but he says that he is his own self again and ready to take up the political cudgels. Now, don't speak all at once Messrs. Republicans, Democrats and Independents.

There was very little enthusiasm at the pool sailing last evening and only a small amount of pools were bought. The maiden race for runners was the only one which caused a little interest. Ahuimau was the favorite with Aggravation as second. They sold 2 to 1. The field fetched 3 to 1. The pools sold were only for to-morrow's meeting.

CORRESPONDENCE.

It Is Improper

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

Allow me to call the attention of the authorities to the impropriety of allowing the small newspaper vendors to go into saloons and frequently remain there for a long time in endeavoring to sell their papers. I am not a temperance man, in fact I frequent the saloons daily and for that very reason I think that I am right in saying that the saloon is no place where those small boys should be allowed. The law prohibits the sale of liquor to minors, but I think it should go a step further by prohibiting children of tender years to enter the places and watch the ways of the patrons of Bacchus, and listen to the talk of the men before the bar which is not always edifying or refining. Let the boys stay outside the doors and scream "papers" at the top of their voices, but let them be kept out of the saloons where they surely can learn nothing that is beneficial to them. Many of the boys are mere toddlers who ought to be at home under their mother's care. NOT A MISSIONARY.
